DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1 and 10-18, drawn to a process of utilizing a database to perform a data content translation conversion, classified in class 704, subclass 2.
 - II. Claims 2-9, drawn to a process of creating a database to be utilized in a data content translation, classified in class 704, subclass 10.\
 - III. Claims 19-20, drawn to an apparatus for data content translation conversion that utilizes a database, classified in class 704, subclass 2.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as providing a means for language translation/localization of documents or computer program user interfaces. Invention II would also have a separate utility such as document clustering for a search engine application database. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions II and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different products or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process as claimed can be used to make a materially different product such as a search engine application database or the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as utilizing a translation table acquired from a predefined translation dictionary to create a database used in translation.

Inventions I and III are not patentably distinct and would be grouped together for examination purposes.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to the applicant's representative on 10/11/2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
